Because the import of slaves had been outlawed, the ship was burned to hide evidence. After emancipation, many of the former captives remained in the area and settled Africatown, which con-

Orange Beach Seafood Fest Feb. 29 at The Wharf Event is major fundraiser for Makos Academics Arts Athletics Club

By Jeanne Fitzgibbons

The Orange Beach Seafood Festival, scheduled on Saturday, February 29 from 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. on Main Street at The Wharf, off Canal Rd., continues to grow with more food, more arts, more cars and more entertainment. The 2019 event saw a record crowd and organizers are gearing up for the same this year. The festival, now in its 28th year is one of the major fundraising events of the newly formed Makos Academics Arts Athletics Club. All revenues from the event will be used at Orange Beach schools to support activities that the county doesn't fund. This new focus is bringing in parents, students and citizens all with the goal of giving our children the very best.

The Wharf location offers the perfect venue for the festival. Unlimited parking and access, space for a large Car Show and a great area for the Kids Zone have meant the festival can offer more for visitors to enjoy. This year there will be 130 Artists; an expanded Car Show on the west side of the Wharf complex; fifteen food booths offering seafood and other specialties and entertainment from two stages. The Paws on Parade event that was added last year will be back, sponsored by Safe Harbor Animal Coalition. In addition, the coalition will be on site will fur babies to adopt. We encourage our pet owners to dress their pets in their finest outfits and come out and participate in the parade.

Artists will be selling an assortment of wares including jewelry, pottery, glass art, metal items, candles, textile arts, canvas & wooden furniture, and so much more. The car show has been growing each year. Cars can sign up the morning of the event but are encouraged to register before the event. All cars must be in place by 9:30 am. The Kids Zone will feature a Mega Slide, Mechanical Bull & Surfboard, and various games. Also on hand will be the Orange Beach Wildlife Center, Alligator Alley and other entertainment.

Many of the changes and upgrades for this year's event are due to partnerships with area businesses. Many thanks to The Wharf, Pepsi, Sunbelt Rentals, Beebe's Pest Control, Brett/Robinson, Encore Rehabilitation, Perdido Beach Resort, USSSA, Gulf Shores/Orange Beach Tourism and the City of Orange Beach.

There is no admission charge to the event and plenty of parking. There will be a $2 per car donation collected that is going directly to our schools. Come out and help our schools grow and expand.

By Mary Wayne Gilmore

Copeland Bender, fifth grade student at Gulf Shores Elementary School, received recognition of first place with his entry in the Alabama Arbor Day Poster contest. He and his family will travel to Montgomery on February 27, to share his artwork with Governor Kaye Ivey and be recognized as the first place winner for the State of Alabama. Riley Green plays March 9 on Flora-Bama beach stage

Country crooner Riley Green is coming back to the Flora-Bama beach stage for a special Beach concert on Monday, March 9.

Tickets are $39.50 (plus taxes and fees) and in the 'Bama gift shop or online at florabama.com. If available, day of show tickets are $45 (plus taxes and fees). The Flora-Bama is, of course, located on the Gulf at the AL-FL state line. Gates for the show will open at 2 p.m., with supporting acts set to start at 3 p.m. The headliner is scheduled for 4 p.m. Umbrellas are not allowed, but patrons can bring beach chairs, blankets and towels. There will be a designated beach chair area in the back portion of the general admission area.

Green is an Alabama native raised on the sounds of traditional country, bluegrass, and southern gospel music. His debut In a Truck Right Now EP introduced his mixture of outlaw-rebellion and respect for tradition across four tracks, including his debut No. 1 hit single "There Was This Girl." He followed up with "In Love By Now."

Orange Beach & Gulf Shores: No spring break rowdiness

By Fran Thompson

The City of Gulf Shores, in an effort to get ahead of rowdy behavior from millennials here for spring break, will continue with its seasonal alcohol ban on public beaches from March 2 through April 17.

The City of Orange Beach has also vowed to crack down on drunk and disorderly behavior. In a social media post, the city's police department put spring break revelers on notice that theirs is not a party town and underage drinking, illegal drug use, disorderly conduct or any other breach of the peace will not be tolerated.

"If you choose to violate the law, you will go to jail. This is your only warning," OBPD stated. "If you are looking for a party town, the City of Orange Beach is not it."

"The City of Orange Beach welcomes all guests to the City of Orange Beach for Spring Break. Our city is a beautiful, family-oriented beach resort community. During Spring Break, we traditionally experience increases in underage drinking, disorderly conduct and illegal drug use," the OBPD stated. "The Orange Beach Police Department will utilize all available resources at our disposal to maintain order and continue to provide a safe, enjoyable experience for all visitors."

Gulf Shores City Council unanimously voted to approve the 2020 alcohol ban on the public beach in December.

Restrictions began in 2016 in Panama City drove more spring break crowds to Pleasure Island, resulting in arrests and rowdy behavior that led the island's two cities to implement new rules to avoid the island becoming what had become an out-of-control Panama City. Pleasure Island's award winning Convention & Visitors Bureau has always focused on attracting families.

Orange Beach Spring No-No's

Proceeds from the event support of the Bully Proof Foundation, a Foley based non-profit that empowers bullying victims. Sassy Bass will be providing food and beverages during the event and host an after party at Sassy Bass Crazy Donuts @ OWA at 6:30 p.m.

"The race is for anybody that wants to run, walk or crawl," said race organizer John Williams. "Only the last heat of the day will be a competitive race." He added that he hopes the mud run will become a new annual event for South Baldwin.

Williams said the 5K race course is full of cool obstacles, including a river crossing. Vendors and local businesses will have booths onsite. The $50 entry fee is currently being discounted to $25. For more run info, go to eventbrite.com.

The Bully Proof Foundation promotes the "chin in the middle" concept, which helps the victim transcend situations and maintain newfound confidence without engaging or striking the bully. Foundation volunteers speak at schools and offer free private help for any child being bullied. And they do it with a "no striking" approach that is self-defense only. Few children understand how to protect themselves from bullies and are left as helpless and often hopeless victims. For more info about the non-profit, call Angela Caine at 251-979-0743 or visit bullyprooffoundation.org.

Jim Martin medical fundraiser

A Jim Martin Medical fundraiser fish fry will be held on Sunday March 1 at the Perdido Key Sports Bar from 11-4; Pick up or Dine In; Events include an art raffle and 50/50. More info: 850-777-1115.

By Tracy Poston

If you've spent any time in Perdido Key, you've probably seen him. If you have ever eaten at Character's, the Reef, or the Sports Bar, he's probably cooked for you. If you ever heard a new language (Jimine) spoken by a man with a Miller Lite and a moustache, you may have sat next to him. And if you have ever heard someone excitedly exclaim "AIIIIIIEEEEEEEEEE!"

[illegible]

next few weeks. It will require 10 days in ICU and 2 weeks of rehab. He will have to rebuild his voice box, but will not lose his speech nor ability to eat. His doctor seems very confident. During his three plus week stay, his daughter, Karsen, will be staying with him in Biloxi, and his grandson, Cody, will also spend a week there. This will cause a financial hardship for them both due to missing extensive amounts of work. Any money we can raise to help support them and ease this burden would be greatly appreciated. It all adds up and no amount is too small. It is what our village does. We rally when a member is down and out. We graciously support each other. We humbly reach out for help from others during hard times. You can donate here on this GoFundMe campaign. All funds raised will be given directly to Karsen to be used as needed. Please consider giving if you are able and share this campaign on social media to help spread the word. Also keep your eyes open for a community fundraiser that will be happening on the Key soon. More details on this to follow. There will also be a giant cancer-beating celebration to follow when Jim is up to it, so get ready to raise a glass with him when he will enjoy a big ole cheeseburger to be washed down by a Miller Lite.

Many ways to help Operation Re-Connect

Non-profit hopes to host more than 100 families from April 18-24

American military veterans and their families will soon enjoy a one-week stay in paradise, thanks to Operation ReConnect. It's the third consecutive year that the City of Orange Beach, property owners, rental management companies and many other local businesses come together and give more than a "Thank You" as a way to give back to U.S. military families who sacrifice so much. Veterans and their families will begin arriving on Saturday, April 18 at 3 p.m. Initial check-ins will take place out front of the City of Orange Beach Council Chambers.

There is a need for property donations. If you or someone you know has the ability to donate a property for the week of April 18 – 24, please complete our online property donation form at operationreconnect.org/reconnectweek.

To contribute, email admin@operationreconnect.org or call 251-609-6772.

"As a current service member, there is not a better way to honor my brothers and sisters than by giving them 7 nights of uninterrupted time with their loved ones," said Ryan Charrier, Founder & President at Operation Re-Connect. He adds that generous support from individuals, organizations and businesses has enabled the expansion of the program and serve more families than initially expected. "Because of local donors, the families we serve do not have to pay for some of their meals, gas, snacks and activities, which eases their financial burden and helps them truly relax and enjoy themselves."

Last year, local businesses stepped up to donate services and accommodations for 100 military families just in Orange Beach, with military men and women returning from Afghanistan.

Charrier (pictured) came up with the concept during his first deployment in 2014.

"A fellow service member brought to my attention that he and his family had never been on a true family vacation. With that information, I brought in a network of incredible people from Coastal Alabama to this family a free vacation to the Gulf Coast," he said.

"At that moment, I realized it was my responsibility to take on the much neglected opportunity to help all combat vets returning from a deployed environment."

Funny Bones

By George Ridder

Yesterday, I was washing the car with my son.

He said: "Dad, can't you just use a sponge?"

A customer walked up to my bank window and asked me to cash a check.

"Of course," I said. "But I'll need to see ID."

She dug through her purse and handed me a snapshot.

"That's me in the middle," she said.

How long a minute is depends on what side of the bathroom door you're on!

I went to a smoke shop to discover that it has been replaced by an apparel store. Clothes, but no cigar.

A woman in my office recently divorced after years of marriage, had signed up for a refresher CPR course.

"Is it hard to learn?" someone asked.

"Not at all," my co-worker replied. "Basically you're asked to breathe life into a dummy. I did that for 12 years."

Upon receiving her manuscript with a rejection letter back from a major publishing company, the author sent a letter to the editor.

"Sir," she began, "you sent back a story of mine. I know that you did not read the story, for as a test I pasted together pages 18,19,20 and 21. My story came back with these pages still stuck together. I know you are a fraud and turned down the manuscript without reading them."

The editor replied: "Madam, when I open an egg I don't have to eat the whole egg to discover it is bad."

I disagree with Kay Jewelers. I would bet on any given Friday or Saturday night more kisses begin with beer than Kay.

Agent (to writer): I've got some good news and some bad news. Writer: First tell me the good news.

Agent: Paramount just loved your script, absolutely ate it up.

Writer: That's fantastic! And the bad news?

Agent: Paramount is the name of my dog.

Did a little mechanical work today. I put a rear end in a recliner.

Don't be worried about your smartphone or TV spying on you. Your vacuum cleaner has been gathering dirt on you for years.

The clergyman of a large church was being shaved by a local barber and he noticed an unmistakable odor of whisky around the barber's face when the razor suddenly nicked the man's face.

"You see, that comes from taking too much drink," said the clergyman.

"You're right," said the barber. "Drinking does make the skin tender."

Seeing her friend Marcia wearing a new locket, Ashley asks if there is a memento of some sort inside.

"Yes," says Marcia, "a lock of my husband's hair."

"But Larry's still alive?"

"I know, but his hair is gone."

To whomever stole my anti depressants. I hope you're happy now!

How much does Santa pay to park his sleigh?

Nothing. It's on the house.

1. A bicycle can't stand alone because it is two-tired.

2. What's the definition of a will? It's a dead giveaway.

3. Time flies like an arrow. Fruit flies like a banana.

4. A backward poet writes in-verse.

5. In democracy it's your vote that counts; in feudalism it's your count that votes.

6. She had a boyfriend with a wooden leg, but broke it off.

7. A chicken crossing the road is poultry in motion.

8. If you don't pay your exorcist you get repossessed.

9. With her marriage she got a new name and a dress.

10. Show me a piano falling down a mine shaft and I'll show you A-flat minor.

11. When a clock is hungry it goes back four seconds.

12. The man who fell into an upholstery machine is fully re-covered.

13. A grenade thrown into a kitchen in France would result in Linoleum Blown apart.

14. You feel stuck with your debt if you can't budge it.

WHAT'S HAPPENING

March 27 fundraiser at Happy Pappy's benefits Theodore Prive

Helping Hands Gulf Shores will host a Theodore Prive Donation Drive at Happy Pappy's Coffee Shop on Friday, March 27. The event will include live music from Christina Christian, Andi & Chris Carstens and others and a silent auction.

Theodore Prive, just two years old, was diagnosed with a rare form of leukemia when he was four months old. Theodore is in Philadelphia going through a bone marrow transplant and will be there for 3 to 5 months depending on complications.

Helping Hands wants to raise at least $6,000 for travel and miscellaneous expenses for the family. Silent auction items and monetary donations are welcome, and donations can be posted to any PNC bank in Baldwin County under the account name Theodore Prive Donation Drive.

Helping Hands was created by Kaysheri Haffner when she was a Gulf Shores elementary school student in 2016. The team also includes Lauren Calvert and Lexie Massengale. The Helping Hands Team has already raised over $16K to help Devan Willis, Taylor Wilson and Clayton Ladd in the past three years.

"Please come to come to the event on March 27th at Happy Pappy's Coffee Shop to help a good cause and to shop for local items at fabulous prices and support Theodore Prive," Kaysheri said. "We are looking forward to seeing you."

For more information, call or text (251) 609-1251, e-mail helpinghandsgulfshores@gmail.com or visit kidshelpinghands.com.

April 2 fundraiser at St. Margaret benefits Mary's Shelter Gulf Coast

Mary's Shelter Gulf Coast will benefit from April Showers for the Babies on Thursday, April 2 at St. Margaret of Scotland Parish Hall. The event will include a luncheon, style show, and silent and live auctions. Tickets are $35 per person or $240 for a reserved table for eight. Tickets may be purchased by contacting Judie Flanigan, 251-554-4889.

Mary's Shelter is a home for homeless pregnant women who choose life for their unborn child. The staff supports the women before and after the birth of the child. The facility is staffed 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The Executive Director oversees all aspects of operating the home. The Program Manager helps the residents set goals for their future and meets with each resident on a regular basis to review progress. The staff also includes an administrative assistant and a grant researcher and writer, as well as a resident adviser.

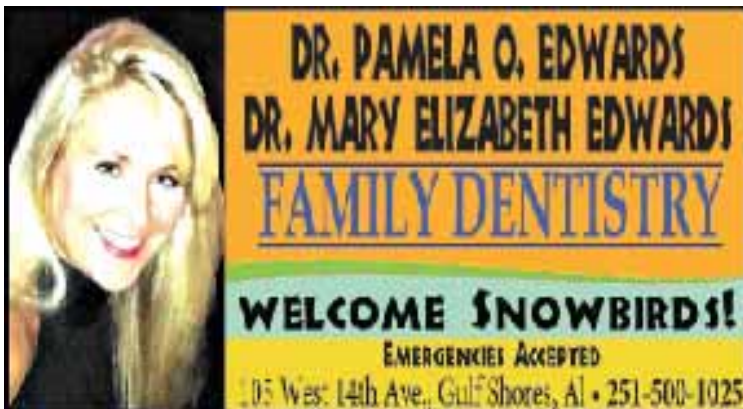

In addition to a volunteer Board of Directors, the home has a cadre of volunteers who help with all aspects of the program, from rocking babies and driving Moms to doctor appointments, to preparing mailings and performing upkeep on the facility. Visit maryssheltgulfcoast.org for more info.

WHAT'S HAPPENING

THREE HONORS IN THREE DAYS FOR TACKY JACKS: Tacky Jacks Restaurants had a big week with three honors in three days beginning Feb. 12 when Pam White, an employee of Tacky Jacks Orange Beach since 2008, was honored with the Coastal AL Business Chamber's Island Spirit Award. (Center back white shirt-above). The following night, Tacky Jacks presented a check to the Gulf Shores High School Baseball Team (below) to help purchase a Turtle batting cage. David Evans, vice - president of Tacky Jacks Operations and Development, threw out the first pitch at Gulf Shores City School's first ever baseball game. On Friday, the South Baldwin Chamber of Commerce presented (bottom) Gabby Camp, a server at Tacky Jacks Gulf Shores, with their SB Awesome award. What a great way for Tacky Jacks to start its 40th year of operation.

ARTWORKS ARTIST OF MONTH: Local artist Potter Kim Brungraber is being celebrated during March at Artworks Studio and Gallery. Kim excelled in oil painting for years before retiring and throwing herself into the fascinating world of pottery. Inspirations come from her years of oil painting flowers, nature and her love of underwater life during scuba diving in the oceans around the world. She is amazed at the multitude of ways to express herself through pottery. Meet & greet with Kim are scheduled March 17 and March 26 from 1:30-5 p.m., with all sales donated to St Jude's Children's Hospital. Artworks is located at Villagio on Perdido Key, 13700 Perdido Key Dr. Info: 850-261-9617.

WHAT'S HAPPENING

COOKIN' WITH CAROLYN By CAROLYN GODFREY

Rib eye steak

2 lb. rib eye steak, about 1-1/4 inches thick
2 cloves garlic, minced
2 tsp. black pepper
1/4 tsp. salt
6 slices bacon
2 Tbsp. butter
1/4 cup dry red wine
2 (8-oz.) packages mushrooms, quartered
1 cup thinly sliced red and green bell pepper
2 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
2 tsp. Dijon mustard
1/4 cup crumbled blue cheese

Trim fat from steak. Let steak stand at room temperature 30 min., then pat dry with paper towels. Rub steak all over with garlic, then sprinkle with black pepper and salt. Cook bacon in a large skillet over medium heat until browned and crisp. Reserving fat in skillet, transfer bacon to paper towels to drain; crumble when cooled. Add butter to drippings in skillet; heat over medium-high heat until it sizzles, about 30 seconds. Reduce heat to medium and add steak; cook, turning once, about 8-10 min. total for medium-rare, or until an instant-read thermometer inserted into thickest parts registers 135 degrees F. Transfer steak to a plate and cover to keep warm. Carefully add wine to skillet and increase heat to medium-high. Cook stirring to scrape up browned bits, until slightly thickened, about 1 min. Stir in mushrooms, bell pepper, Worcestershire and mustard. Reduce heat to medium and cook, stirring, until mushrooms are tender, 5-6 min. Serve steak topped with vegetable mixture, bacon, and blue cheese. Serves 4. Enjoy!

Musicians For Autism March 21 at Oasis Resort at The Wharf

The Oasis Resort at The Wharf will be open to the public during the 7th Annual Musicians For Autism Festival in Orange Beach on Saturday March 21 from 10 a.m. 'til 9 p.m. Admission is $10 for adults and $5 for children 10 and under. Sassy Bass Cafe at The Oasis will donate 50 percent of all food entree sales in support, and musicians are donating their time for the cause.

Silent auction items include parasailing and dolphin cruise trips, ski rentals, coolers, zero gravity chairs, autographed musical instruments and gift cards and passes to local restaurants and attractions.

Bands, duos and solo musicians who have already volunteered their time for the event include Milton Faustino, Jordan Davis, Brad Petherl, Reid Soria, Scott Koehn, Lisa Christian and Dave Nizorik, Jimmy and the Parrots, The Bitter End Band and Midnight Shepherds. GSHS alum Tim Higgins at Big Beach Feb. 29

Songwriter's album BLIGHT released day before his hometown gig

Gulf Shores High School alum Tim Higgins will release his debut record, BLIGHT, a day before playing a hometown gig with his band on Feb. 29 at Big Beach Brewing Co. in Gulf Shores.

Recorded on the Folk Victorian Record label, the album was written primarily during Higgins' time living in a decaying Victorian mansion in Tuscaloosa. And its songs are informed by his futile fight against developers to preserve the turn-of-the-century blighted neighborhood.

Higgins uses the concept of blight as a lens through which to focus on what is often considered diseased in society, the environment and personal relationships.

These songs couple and at times contrast Higgins' growling vocals with a driving urgency provided by members of The Prescriptions (Single Lock Records). The album also features contributions from Alex Caress (Little Bandit), LG (Thelma & the Sleaze), and Kyshona Armstrong. The arrangements and musicianship on BLIGHT tell Higgins' stories of misfits, orphans, and ruins as importantly as the lyrics.

In November 2018, Higgins released the title track from the album. The song's music video offers listeners the first visual into Higgins' world - where the Detroit native has taken root in the Deep South's atmosphere of resilience, decadence and decay. Filmed on location around Greensboro, Alabama, the video shows opulent mansions juxtaposed against crumbling theatre stages, rotting houses, and kudzu laden gardens. The song was included on Rolling Stone Country's Best New Music list.

Higgins' singular voice has been lauded across the US, most notably by NPR Music critic Ann Powers. His most recent performance on the Gulf Coast was last November during the 35th annual Frank Brown International Songwriters Festival.

BLIGHT is an explosive debut that establishes Higgins as a unique voice who seamlessly pairs Rock n Roll, Folk, and Americana with an ominous and cinematic quality.

Lemonade Day registration now open to South Baldwin kids

The Coastal Alabama and South Baldwin Chamber sponsored Lemonade Day is now open for registration to kids currently enrolled in kindergarten through fifth grade in the Gulf Shores, Orange Beach, & Foley areas. The nationwide program first came to the Coastal Alabama area on a hunch from former Coastal Alabama Business Chamber Chairman Nick Wilmott. The event is set for April 18. Contact Penny Hughey at penny@mygulfcoastchamber.com or 251-968-7220 or go to lemonade-day.org/coastal-alabama to sign up.

Participants are able to attend various workshops on topics (such as recipe development and financial literacy) to help prepare them for the big day where they will be running their own stand at a designated location in the community. Along with teaching the ins-and-outs of the business world, the program also encourages its' participants to split up the money they've earned in three ways: Spend it - As reward for their hard work; Share it - With a cause or charity in the community; Save it - To put away or re-invest for next year.

Gulf Shores and Foley High School student Caitlin Buemi was tragically killed in a car accident on March 7, 2010. She was a bright, athletic, loving girl who was full of life.

Caitlin was a competition cheerleader, varsity soccer player, varsity cheerleader, ran track and was an active member of her church. She worked as well as maintained an a/b average in school. She wanted to go to the University of Alabama to pursue a career in sports medicine. Since her death, Caitlin's family has hosted golf and cornhole tournaments and other events to raise money to provide scholarships to local students, who write essays on why you shouldn't text and drive and why you should wear your seat belt.

"Caitlin made a life changing decision that we want to educate people on. Don't text and drive and please wear your seatbelt," said Niki.

Kids invited to turn rescue pet carriers into works of art Feb. 29

The Stray Love Foundation is inviting children to come out and decorate its pet carriers. The children will be armed with bright colored sharpies and encouraged to be creative and use their imaginations. The budding artists should show up in clothes that can be "sharpied" at the Magnolia Springs Public Library on February 29 from 11am to noon.

"This is a fun event for everyone and we are always delighted to see what the children come up with. Not only do our carriers look fantastic when the children finish with them, but our veterinarians have no trouble spotting our carriers when we take our rescue animals to and from the vet clinic," said Stray Love Director Gayle Guthrie.

The Magnolia Springs Library also hosts "Kitty Thursdays" where the Stray Love Foundation brings adoptable cats or kittens to spend the afternoon at the library from noon to 5 p.m. Needless to say, Thursdays are very popular with the children that visit the library. Since kitten season is almost upon us Stray Love is asking parents, if they can, to send their children with donations of kitten replacement milk (KMR) and kitten wet & dry food. The Library is located at 2440 Magnolia Ave. in downtown Magnolia Springs. More info: straylovefoundation.org or 251.510.8200.

"Talking About Tallulah" topic of March 3 Foley Library lecture

Alabama Humanities Road Scholar Frances Robb will present "Talking About Tallulah" on Tuesday, March 3 @ 2 p.m. at the Foley Library. Seating is limited and reservations are required. Call 251-943-7665 to reserve a spot or visit foleylibrary.org for more info.

Tallulah Bankhead (1902-1968), Alabama's most celebrated actor, was a talented performer, Jazz Age celebrity and a determined champion of racial equality. Best remembered for her performance in the film Lifeboat, she received awards as a capable, talented performer in several performing media.

Frances will present a slide presentation in three parts. The first presents Bankhead's most notable achievements, from her role as Regina Giddings in Lillian Hellman's play The Little Foxes to her work as emcee of the NBC family variety program The Big Show. The second describes Bankhead's personal life, including her noted Alabama political family, her difficult upbringing, success on the English stage, early appearances in film and stage, and her emergence as a talented actress. The third documents Bankhead's work for racial tolerance and equality, including her encouragement of black sports figures and musicians, her showcasing of black entertainers on The Big Show, and her forthright views that talent has no color bar and that racial equality was long overdue.

Sadly, many of our members are leaving the Gulf Coast at the end of February, but to those that will be staying a while longer, we have a final 2020 meeting on March 5th. On that date our last breakfast buffet will begin at 7:30 at the Luna Event Center on Canal Rd. Annual membership is $2.50 and breakfast is $10. We have many door prizes and a 50/50 raffle. Our speaker will be Craig Stevenson, Orange Beach Fire Marshall. If you need to make reservations please call Jan Pell (317-914-5832) by March 3rd. Please be sure to check our Facebook page (IN snowbirds) during the remaining year for information regarding our club.

Snowbird bowlers raise $1257

The Annual 8-pin No Tap Bowling Tournament was held on Tuesday, February 11, at the Gulf Bowl in Foley. Bowlers and guests were able to buy raffle tickets for numerous prizes. Prizes were also given to the top two teams, high game and the 12 bowlers who got "300" games! This FUN event raised $1257 for Christian Services, bringing the total given to this group over the years to $5,209. Co-chairmen, Tony Schwanda and Linda Kosian, along with Christian Services want to thank all bowlers, guests and prize/raffle donors for making this event so successful.

Linda Machenthun on trash patrol

By Diane Ranshaw

You may not have met Linda Machenthun from Minnesota. She tends to do her work between 2 and 8 a.m., when most of us are snug in bed. Linda has made it her mission to clean the beaches of bottle caps and cigarette butts along the water's edge of beautiful Gulf Shores. Over the last six weeks of her stay, she has gathered buckets full of the stuff that others carelessly toss on the sand. If you ever happen to look out over the beach in the wee hours of the morning you may see her with her boots, backpack, walking stick and flashlight scanning the sand and shore. Thank you Linda for your sincere love and commitment to making our little piece of heaven here in Gulf Shores that much more beautiful. Let's all chip in to do our part in doing the same.

FOLEY MARDI GRAS PARADE

SPANISH COVE INVADED BY PIRATES: A pirate ship called "Three Tickets Deep" invaded Spanish Cove in Lillian recently and took the first place prize in the Annual Mardi Gras Parade. Second Place was won by Sandy Mannion and her crew that included Abigail Young, Lorrie Young and Shannon Young. There was a third place tie with Bert, Stacia and Brenda Kimbrell aboard an Alabama golf cart that temporarily gave up its red and white décor in favor of Mardi Gras purple, gold and green. Deborah and Gerard Donin topped off their golf cart with a Mardi Gras Crown to tie with the Kimbrells. Afterwards paraders and parade watchers gathered in the Spanish Cove Clubhouse for a taste of Mobile with "official" King Cake treats.

TREASURES OF ISLE: FELLOWSHIP & GIVING BACK: The Treasures of the Isle Mardi Gras Krewe, established in 2007 with the objectives of enjoying Mardi Gras, fellowship and giving back. The krewe recently rolled its walking parade for citizens not able to be out and about on the Fat Tuesday. This year, TOI spread an abundance of beads, treasure chests, stuffed animals, cakes and Moon Pies at The Haven Assisted Living & Memory Care, Foley High School Magnolia Room and Diversicare of Foley.
